Our Mission:

We assist the Court in the fair administration of justice by preparing presentence reports with objective, verified information and unbiased sentencing recommendations.

We protect the community by promoting accountability for justice-involved individuals.

We create meaningful opportunities for positive change in the lives of individuals under our supervision.

POSITION OVERVIEW: The Southern District of New York U.S. Probation Office has multiple vacancies for the position of Probation Services Technician. The Probation Services Technician provides technical, administrative, and case management support to probation officers and probation officer assistants in a wide range of areas, which may include assisting with conducting investigations, urinalysis testing and processing, research, report preparation, and/or the assignment of prerelease and presentence investigations and out-of-district violations, coordinating with other agencies, and performing other similar duties as assigned. As requested by supervisory probation officers and/or office managers, the incumbent will assist with general office coverage duties.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Act as a liaison and point of contact between the Bureau of Prisons, U.S. Attorney's Office, the Court, and any other relative agencies related to the assignment of presentence investigations, prerelease investigations, and out-of-district violations.
- Serve as the point-of-contact for various local, state, and federal agencies to collect and record information to assist with investigations.
- Receive and process new cases for the commencement of supervision.
- Monitor cases for compliance with supervision conditions and notify the officer and/or Court of matters needing attention.
- Update information in the Probation Automated Case Tracking System (PACTS).
- Prepare and update case files and reports (investigations and supervision) at the direction of an officer and in accordance with established policies and practices.
- Monitor inactive cases that have been detained with other agencies or have absconded from supervision.
- Participate in on-going training and development in order to remain current of advanced techniques.

Our Vision:

We are most successful when we work together as one unified organization. We serve specific roles in presentence investigations, post-conviction supervision or administration, but we are each instrumental to organizational success.

We achieve excellence when all employees are engaged and work toward clear and common goals. We commit to a fully inclusive, diverse, and compassionate work environment. We aspire to a culture of commitment, respect and comradery that values the contributions of each staff member. Leadership decisions are mission driven, human centered and values based.

We strive to conduct presentence investigations that result in fair sentences for all defendants appearing before our Court. We seek out and verify all information necessary to determine an appropriate sentence. Our sentencing recommendations are thoughtful, unbiased, and consequential to the fair administration of justice.

We champion positive change in the lives of individuals under our supervision through respectful engagement, active observation, and individualized services. We influence our client population through our presence, problem-solving and support, community partnerships, and accountability interventions when necessary. Our interventions are fair, objective and evidence based.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES (continued):

- Assist with general office coverage duties such as but not limited to receiving and directing telephonic or electronic communications, drug testing, and other general clerical work.
- Perform other duties as assigned.
