The successful candidate for this position is subject to an intensive background check.

The Southern District of New York values diversity and is committed to inclusion in the workplace. We encourage applications from all qualified individuals and seek a diverse pool of applicants.

PROGRAM INTRODUCTION: The United States Probation Office for the Southern District of New York voluntary internship program is established to help students acquire knowledge, to gain valuable experience, and fulfill school requirements, while also providing services to the U.S. Probation Office. Our goal is to provide students with hands-on experience in the two facets of probation: presentence investigation and post-conviction supervision. The probation office will consider the applicant's division preference but cannot guarantee assignment. Interns may receive academic credit if an agreement is made between the Probation Department and the intern's college or university.

POSITION OVERVIEW: The Probation Office seeks out undergraduate and post-graduate students majoring/minoring in criminal justice, the social sciences, and other related fields of study. The students will be given as much exposure to their designated division, and possibly the other sector, during the internship appointment. There may also be involvement in special projects, but always under the direction of an officer, in an office setting in one of our two offices, unless otherwise directed. This internship is for the 2025 Fall semester starting in September.

GENERAL EXPERIENCE: The position requires excellent communication skills (written and oral), strong interpersonal skills, computer literacy, and some knowledge of legal terminology. Must be punctual and reliable.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Must be at least 18 years old.
2. Enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate program at an accredited college/university junior or senior.
3. Cumulative GPA of 2.5 or above.
4. Must be in good standing with college or university.
5. Must commit to completing a minimum of 16 hours per week.
